1. Guerrilla forces under Prince Te, numbering more than twenty thousand, are operating in the area along the Hinghsia-Suiyuan border, north of Hinghsia City, on both sides of the Yellow River. These forces, which are scattered in small groups, control the countryside.*

25X1A

2. One army of FU Tso-i's troops, of unknown strength, defected from Paotou and moved west. They met Prince Te's forces, either in the Shanpa (107-00, 40-59) area or between there and Pailingmiao, and are now cooperating with them.

3. The first Chinese Communist mission which was sent to negotiate with Prince Te did not see him. Te's representatives gave a flat refusal to all proposals. In August 1950 a second Chinese Communist mission was in progress, but its results were as yet unknown.

25X1X * Comment. The Taiwan press reports to the effect that Prince Te has captured Pailingmiao are unconfirmed and doubtful. Te's forces would be capable of making such a raid and may have done so to capture weapons and supplies. The Pailingmiao garrison is composed mainly of FU Tso-i's troops.
